

OPEN CALL FOR INTERNATIONAL PARTNER¹

Jagiellonian University Cracow as a Project Leader, on the basis of the Act on development policy of the 6th of December 2006 (article 28a) (Official Journal 06.227.1658 with further changes), announces an open call for International Partner interested in preparing and implementing a common project with working title: "Development of competencies among faculty members of the Philosophy Department at the Jagiellonian University:" (further: DCPD). The project is a response to the call for proposals (1/POKL/4.1.1/PN/2013) issued by the National Centre for Research and Development in the framework of Priority 4: "Higher education and science", Subaction 4.1.1: "Enhancement of didactical potential of universities/colleges" of the Human Capital Operational Programme (European Social Fund).

Partnership goals:

Cooperation for preparation and implementation of a project developing competencies in the area of modern teaching methods adjusted to requirements of the labour market among faculty members of the Philosophy Department at the Jagiellonian University. By competencies we understand analysis of students' development areas and needs; design of teaching programmes based on students' needs and current needs of the labour market; conducting classes with a help of interactive teaching methods (including methods based on e-platform) → actions: „c”, „h” and „i” as specified in the project documentation.

Requirements for International Partner:

Substantive and practical experience, human, technical and organisational resources required, including:

- 1.1 experience in implementing „train the (online) trainers” projects for educators of adults (at least one project) – as a Leader or Partner
- 1.2 experience in preparing manuals/instructions for online trainers – educators of adults
- 1.3 expertise in new media technologies/methodologies of distant learning for adults
- 1.4 expertise in development of online technology applications for education
- 1.5 experience in implementing projects co-funded by the European Union (at least one project)

Selection procedure:

Project Leader will evaluate the fulfillment of the aforementioned requirements. Further individual negotiations will be conducted only with entities fulfilling the requirements in order to: clarify the partnership goals; clarify project tasks and their division between the Partner and the Leader; clarify project/partnership management procedures and other issues essential for signature of the partnership agreement. In addition, the Project Leader will evaluate:

- accordance of potential partner's general activities with the project goals
- input offered by potential partner in order to reach the project goals
- possible cooperation with the Project Leader during the project preparation process

Deadline for offers: 30.08.2013, 10:00 AM (receipt date decides). Offers should be submitted in a closed envelope to: Jagiellonian University, Poland, Cracow 31-007, 24 Gołębia Street, room 24; postscript: „DCPD project”.

¹ This call is of informational character and does not constitute the announcement as understood by the law on public procurement and on public benefit activities.

For more information about the call please contact: (+48) 664 740 434. Results of the call will be provided via email and will be published in the Polish Public Information Bulletin.

Project Leader reserves the right to cancel the call without giving reasons.